

Eastern States Section (ESS) Student Travel Support Application

The 9th US National Combustion Meeting

Deadline: May 10, 2015

The ESS/CI is pleased to provide travel support to students who are in ESS/CI and will present accepted technical papers at the 9th US National Combustion Meeting held in Cincinnati, Ohio (May 17-20, 2015). We anticipate making awards of up to $250/per student. Qualified students are those who need travel support and must be a current degree candidate at a college or university in the Eastern States Section at the time of the conference. Also, one of their senior co-workers or advisors needs to attend the meeting. In addition, please be advised that the size of the individual award may be adjusted depending on the number of applications within our allocated budget.

To apply for the ESS/CI student travel support, please fill the online form using the following link:

by May 10, 2015, so that we can assemble our final budget in time. Please note that your name, email, and mailing address must be accurate and will be used to contact you and/or mail the check of travel support to you during or after the meeting. Inaccurate application information such as name, email, and mailing address may result in difficulty in receiving your check for travel support.
